The Sustainable Events Summit kicked off this morning, with an opening session by moderator Nadine Dereza and a live Skype presentation from Chelli Easson, manager Sustainability and Legacy, Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games Corporation.

Delegates then broke into small groups, with the choice to move between five of a possible fifteen roundtable sessions on topics including ISO20121 accreditation, expert tips on waste, sustainability and overseas travel and the role industry associations should play in driving sustainability.

C&IT and sister title Event magazine are the official media partners for this year's Sustainable Events Summit.
